

CP PLUS Grabs the Shield Awards Yet Again

Noida, May 2018: CP PLUS, the global leader in advanced security and surveillance solutions, recently bagged multiple awards at the Secona Shield Awards 2018 hosted at the BEC Complex. The Shield Awards recognizes extraordinary contributions in the field of Fire Safety & Security and Security & Surveillance.

CP PLUS was awarded three titles - Innovative Product of the Year in Security (Hardware-CCTV) for the CP PLUS 4G Wireless IR Bullet Camera; Innovative Security Accessory of the Year for the CP PLUS CCTV Toolkit; and The Amit Popat Award for the Entrepreneur of the Year in Security/ Safety awarded to Mr. Aditya Khemka, MD, CP PLUS.

“It is an absolute honor to be recognized and awarded before such an esteemed panel of jury. CP PLUS has always been dedicated to delivering value in the field of surveillance through rigorous R&D and agility towards customer needs and sentiments. And, we wish to continue doing so”, said Mr. Aditya Khemka, MD, CP PLUS.

Dedicated to the security & safety industry, the Shield Awards is the first of its kind to recognize the contribution of individuals and organizations that are relentlessly working towards making us and our communities safer.

While CP PLUS bagged the award for two of its best products, namely the 4G Wireless IR Bullet Camera, and its unique CCTV Toolkit, Mr. Aditya Khemka receiving the coveted Amit Popat Award for the Entrepreneur of the Year was what stole the show.
